

Program Announcement and Invitation to Apply

PROGRAM FOR EMERGING SCHOLARS OF GOR

To: Post Docs and advanced research assistants in the field of Operations Research who are in the process of seeking habilitation

This is to invite you to apply for participation in the special "Emerging Scholars Program" session of the OR 2017 Conference in Berlin, on Thursday, September 7, 2017, 7:30-11:30 a.m. In order to foster the development of new professionals pursuing academic careers in OR, the German Operations Research Society is sponsoring this special session of the conference.

The half-day program's goal is to provide new university professionals in OR with career-building advice in developing excellence in their personal programs of teaching, research, and service. The program is highly interactive and will feature internationally recognized senior scholars

Speakers: Heinrich Kuhn, Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt, and Erwin Pesch, University of Siegen

as discussion leaders. The program will be limited to 12 participants. To apply you must hold a PhD or must be at an advanced stage of your PhD process in a university department in Operations Research, be registered for the conference, and commit to attend the full half-day program. If you are interested in participating, please do the following:

1. Register for the conference and
2. send a short email describing what you hope to achieve through the program, stating your current academic position, along with a copy of your current vita on or before July 31, 2017, to GORES@udayton.edu.

Supervision: Jack Kanet, University of Dayton, Chair
Peter Letmathe, RWTH Aachen University, Co-Chair
